

VACATION

Jesus said, "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
—Matthew 11:28

God wants us to get some rest. He makes this clear from the very beginning when he himself rested on the seventh day after he created the whole world. He officially instituted a "day off" for his people Israel, called the Sabbath (literally meaning "to rest"), and commanded them not to work on the seventh day of the week. This day was to be kept holy, a day dedicated to the LORD their God. In so doing, God teaches us that it's good to take a break from our work and to find refreshment in him. We shouldn't be workaholics, who are slaving away all day and everyday, but we need to find time to rest both our bodies and souls.

Even Jesus himself would do this, as it's recorded for us in the Gospels. He would often go away on his own to a quiet place to rest and pray. The pressing crowds, constantly seeking from him a sign and hanging on his every word, were sometimes too much for him. Jesus needed a vacation.

This is why it's meet, right, and salutary that we can and should also go on vacation. It's good for us to take a break and get away, whether that be camping or renting a place on the beach, going out of state or heading up north. As many of you know, my wife and I always take a trip up to the U.P., as we plan to do so this month. I don't just do this because I enjoy it, but it's actually for your benefit that I have time to refresh myself and be better equipped to serve you. It is good for me to vacate for a while, as it is for you.

But it's never good to vacate from the Lord's house. We take vacations, have days off, and seek rest because too much work isn't good for us, a burden we can't bear. But the Divine Service should never be a burden for us. And yet that's how our sinful flesh treats it. Coming to church on a Sunday morning is a chore. It's boring. A pain. We'd be better off sleeping in and staying away, most especially during the summer months when it's so nice outside or we're out of town.

But there's no excuse for missing the Divine Service. Our entire lives, every week, should revolve around it. For this is where the Lord gives us true rest. This is our Sabbath. Through his Word and Sacraments, Christ Jesus refreshes us. He forgives us of our sins and rejuvenates our faith, giving us strength for the journey.

Week after week, your Lord invites you into his home to give you treasures from heaven, preparing you for the feast which will have no end. How could you possibly tell him, "No, I won't be there"? Whether you're in town or out of town, you should be in the Lord's house every single Sunday. If you're away on vacation, that's no excuse to take a vacation from church. Ask me, and I'll help you find an LCMS congregation to join that Sunday morning, so that you'll never miss out on the opportunity to receive the real vacation you need, which only Jesus can give.

In Christ,

Pastor Haller

Hymn of the Month

In anticipation of our congregation's 75th anniversary in November 2024, we will have a hymn chosen for the month that will be used during the Divine Service. The hymns of the church give God's people the words to sing his praises and to confess what he has done for them in the saving death and resurrection of his Son Jesus Christ.

Built on the Rock LSB 645

N.F.S. Grundtvig's (1783-1872) hymn is based on our Lord's words from the Gospel of Matthew, when he said, "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock" (Matthew 7:24-25).

The Church is built upon the Rock Jesus Christ, which is why "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18). The church building itself is not the dwelling place of God, but rather, he chooses to live with us in love, making our bodies a temple of the Holy Spirit. In the sanctuary, we see how God would "deign with us to dwell." The font, the altar, and the Scriptures give us "Christ yesterday, today, the same." The Word and the Sacraments are the means by which our Rock is present with us, his bride, the Church, causing us to stand even when the rains fall, the floods come, and the winds blow and beat against us.

Thus, we pray that, when our congregation's church bells ring on Sunday mornings at 9:15 am, "many in saving faith may come where Christ His message is bringing: 'I know my own; My own know Me. You, not the world, My face shall see. My peace I leave with you. Amen.'"

- 1 Built on the Rock the Church shall stand
Even when steeples are falling.
Crumbled have spires in ev'ry land;
Bells still are chiming and calling,
Calling the young and old to rest,
But above all the souls distressed,
Longing for rest everlasting.
- 2 Surely in temples made with hands
God, the Most High, is not dwelling;
High above earth His temple stands,
All earthly temples excelling.
Yet He who dwells in heav'n above
Chooses to live with us in love,
Making our bodies His temple.
- 3 We are God's house of living stones,
Built for His own habitation.
He through baptismal grace us owns
Heirs of His wondrous salvation.
Were we but two His name to tell,
Yet He would deign with us to dwell
With all His grace and His favor.
- 4 Here stands the font before our eyes,
Telling how God has received us.
The altar recalls Christ's sacrifice
And what His Supper here gives us.
Here sound the Scriptures that proclaim
Christ yesterday, today, the same,
And evermore, our Redeemer.
- 5 Grant, then, O God, Your will be done,
That, when the church bells are ringing,
Many in saving faith may come
Where Christ His message is bringing:
"I know My own; My own know Me.
You, not the world, My face shall see.
My peace I leave with you. Amen."

THE BIG FATHER & HIS LITTLE BOY By Katie Schuermann

If you've been looking for an adventure story for your family, one steeped in Biblical allusion and shaped by the Lutheran confessions but also told in classic literary meter (think Pilgrim's Progress and The Chronicles of Narnia), this book is for you.

A little boy is born to a big father. The big father is mighty in power but weak in love, and the boy must flee for his life or die. But with the help of a singing milkmaid, a mute farmhand, a beekeeper's daughter, a stubborn dog, and a rather adventurous cat, the boy learns to trust in God the Father Almighty who is bigger and stronger and wiser than the only father he has known.

WE PRAISE YOU, O GOD by William Weedon & Edward Riojas

Delve into the Te Deum, one of the most majestic Christian hymns of all time. Sung during the Office at Matins and on occasions of great celebration, this creed of the church proclaims God's boundless love for His rebellious children.

Insightful commentary offers a rich exploration of the historical and theological significance of this hymn, while vivid illustrations chronicle the grace of God shining in the lives of the many saints who have gone before us. Encyclopedic entries provide additional information on the figures in these engaging pictures, ensuring an enjoyable learning experience for readers of all ages.

Adults and children will return to this book again and again, reflecting on God's wondrous mercy shown in Christ's life, death, and resurrection and joining the saints of all Christendom in this great hymn of praise.

—STEWARDSHIP—

August Coffee Money
Seminary Student

The Stewardship Board's quarterly mission for July through September will be to Luther Classical College. This future college will provide a conservative, classical Lutheran education to Lutheran students. Paramount will be the promotion of Christian culture, a stress on the priority of Christian marriage, family, and piety, and a cultivation of confessional Lutheran theology, liturgy, hymnody, and identity. With courses using the "great books" of the past for the core curriculum, the college will offer Latin, history, theology, literature, logic, rhetoric, music, geometry, biology, and mathematics, all within a purposefully Christian and Lutheran framework. This college will receive no government funding but relies on the generosity of congregations and individuals. To learn more about the school, visit their website at lutherclassical.org.

For those willing to support, specific envelopes can be found on the back table of the narthex.

THE DAILY READINGS FOR AUGUST

“God’s Word is the treasure that makes everything holy. By it all the saints have themselves been made holy.
