

ZEBEDEE, A FAITHFUL LAYMAN

Immediately Jesus called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

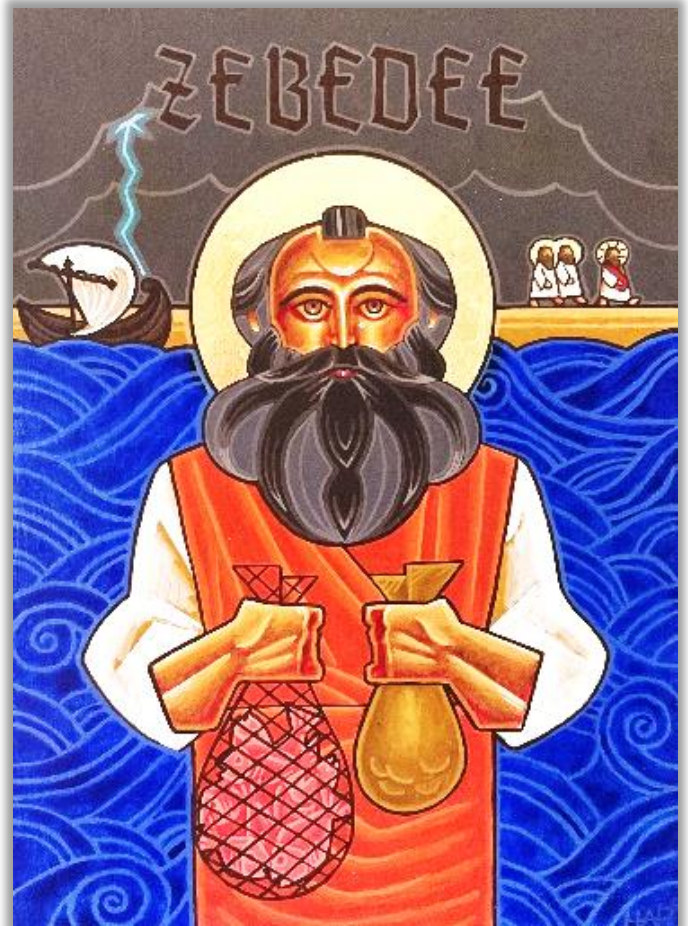

—Mark 1:20

Every summer, I enjoy preaching on Luke 5:1-10, which tells of the time when Jesus called Peter, Andrew, James, and John to leave their profession of catching fish to instead catch men. They had full-time jobs casting nets from their boats and selling whatever they caught. But when Jesus caused them to catch a load too big for their boats and nets to handle, they answered the call when he said, “Come, follow me” (Matthew 4:19). Luke records that “they forsook all and followed him” (Luke 5:11), that is, they left behind not only their boats but also their homes and their families, which meant that James and John left behind their father Zebedee, who was also a fisherman but didn’t go with Jesus to catch men. Instead, he stayed.

And this is where I often like to pick up the story and fill in a few pieces. Why didn’t Zebedee go? Did he not believe like his sons had? Wasn’t he also a Christian? Yes, I certainly think he was, but that didn’t mean he had to get up and go. Instead, he needed to stay. Not only because someone had to keep the business from going under, but even more than that, somebody had to support those who had left to follow Jesus.

Our Lord and his twelve apostles spent three years traveling throughout the land of Israel, proclaiming the Gospel. They had a lot of work to do and, with that, a lot of travel expenses. And who was going to pay for all that? Who was going to support their ministry? Zebedee. And also his wife Salome (Mark 16:1), along with her friends Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Susanna (Luke 8:2-3). I can imagine Zacchaeus helped out (Luke 19:1-8), as well as Jairus (Mark 5) and maybe a few grateful mothers (Matthew 15:21-28) and fathers (John 4:46-54).

You see, not everyone is a minister. Not everyone is called to preach the Gospel and administer the Sacraments. Not everyone has been set apart to stand in the stead and by the command of Christ to forgive sins. Certainly, all of us should “give the reason for the hope that you have” (1 Peter 3:15), but not everyone has left everything in order to “shepherd the flock of God” (1 Peter 5:2). Not everyone is a minister, and yet every Christian is called to support the ministry, just as St. Paul instructs, “Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches” (Galatians 6:6).

But not only are you to support the ministry with your money, so that I can get my living from the gospel (1 Corinthians 9:14), but you also support it by putting in some work yourself, and there's plenty of work to go around. Not only does the church need money, but we also need someone to count the money, pay the bills, and perform an audit. On top of that, the church needs someone to screw in lightbulbs, repair a broken sink, and get an estimate on a new parking lot. We need people who will peel potatoes, bake brownies, and wash dishes. We have a community that not only needs the Gospel, but also clothes, school supplies, canned goods, gas cards, and toiletries. We need Sunday School teachers, babysitters, and acolytes. There are bulletins to fold, wastebaskets to empty, and snow to shovel. These things don't magically happen on their own. Someone must do it.

This congregation's primary task is to proclaim the Gospel, and that's why you've called me. Jesus called me to catch men with His word. But along with that primary task is a whole slew of other work that needs to get done, and I can't do it. So, who's going to? We need our own version of Zebedee, Salome, Mary, Jairus, and all the rest. The church needs you.

At the Voters Meeting on October 11th, our congregation will approve a ballot of members nominated for various boards, who will be tasked to do much of this important work. We not only need names on this list, but we need people who will actually sacrifice their time and do what needs to get done, who won't make excuses as to why this or that hasn't been accomplished but will bend over backwards to make sure their congregation takes priority.

If you've been on a board before or you've just recently signed yourself up, thank you. But I ask that you not be content with simply letting your name stand on a list, but that you actually attend the meetings, take notes, volunteer, and accomplish the tasks you are given. Don't sit back and expect someone else to do it. The church needs you. Be a Zebedee. Support the ministry.

And although Zebedee isn't mentioned in the four Gospels as much as his two sons are, his work never went unnoticed by our heavenly Father, just as yours doesn't either. So go about your churchly tasks with joy, even if no one else seems to notice but the One for whom you serve. For in the end, all that really matters is that your name is written in the Book of Life, and "that is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

In Christ,

Pastor Haller

Every month, as a congregation, we will have a Bible verse to memorize, so that together the word of Christ may dwell richly in our hearts. Here is October's Bible verse:

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast (Ephesians 2:8-9).

WHY?

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE LITURGY

Why are the bread and cup lifted up?

When the bread and wine are consecrated (set apart) by the Words of Institution, they are no longer ordinary bread and wine, but we believe that in, with, and under such food and drink is the true and physical body and blood of the God-man Jesus Christ. The body he gave and the blood he shed on the cross have been resurrected and are now given for us to eat and to drink, so that his death and resurrection might be ours.

Therefore, the pastor doesn't only lift up bread and a cup of wine, but he is lifting up Christ himself for all to see and adore. This food is the Bread of Life who came down from heaven (John 6:35). It is the most sacred gift God has given to us, and so if anything is to be elevated among us, it is this food, our Lord Jesus.

The pastor not only lifts up the body and blood of Christ, but he also lowers himself by genuflecting (bowing with the knee) in worship, even as the congregation can bow in reverence toward our Lord on the altar. This simple gesture is a great confession of what we believe we receive in the Sacrament. This food isn't a symbol of our Lord's body and blood, and we don't merely remember his death. But by eating this bread and drinking this cup, we eat and drink the very body and blood of Jesus, proclaiming his death until he comes (1 Corinthians 11:26).

A HOLY CONVERSATION

Holy Scripture Sufficiency, Clarity, and Canonicity

In this conversation, we will walk through three topics related to and illuminating the Lutheran understanding of Sola Scriptura (Scripture Alone). We will learn, first, about the necessity and sufficiency of Scripture for establishing Christian doctrine. Secondly, we will address the question of whether the Scriptures are clear enough to fulfill the purpose for which they were written. Finally, we will ask the fundamental question for those appealing to Scripture alone: what are the canonical books of the Bible, and how do we know.

—YOUTH—

After the Divine Service on Sunday, October 4th, there will be a parent meeting for those children who will be entering into the 7th grade and above in summer 2027. The meeting is to discuss Higher Things. For more information about this youth conference, go to www.higherthings.org

—LADIES AID—

- The 75th Anniversary Cookbook is still in the works and will hopefully be done in the near future.
- Diane will meet with Carolyn Carpenter to decide what size and color Christmas bows will be needed.
- The former constitution (written in 1989) was read. Next month, we will finish making changes.

In an effort to enhance the Divine Service, Ladies Aid has posted a flower chart for families or church boards wishing to participate. Please consider signing up to beautify the altar sometime this year.

Thank you to all those who purchased Easter flowers to adorn our altar!

FAITH FAMILY REUNION RETREAT

Saturday, October 31st, from 9 am to 3 pm
St. Lorenz Lutheran Church, Frankenmuth, MI

Do you have family members who don't come to church? How does that make you feel? Perhaps you feel embarrassed, ashamed, or guilty that you've failed to share the faith with them. Maybe you struggle to find words to share the gospel with them or to talk about the challenges that you face. Join us for an encouraging conversation about life with prodigals who have wandered from the Christian faith.

Join us on Saturday, October 31, 2026 for a retreat with Paula, founder of Faith Family Reunion. During this time, we invite you to begin the journey of discovery together with us as we explore the notion that we might all share similar stories and that maybe you are really not alone on this road.

THE DAILY READINGS FOR OCTOBER

“God’s Word is the treasure that makes everything holy. By it all the saints have themselves been made holy. At whatever time God’s Word is taught, preached, heard, read, or pondered, there the person, the day, and the work is hallowed, not on account of the external work but on account of the Word that makes us all saints.”

Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church
Parish Planning Meeting
September 22, 2026

Attendance: Pastor Haller, Aaron Reinbold, Steve Reinbold, Holly Winter, Diane Spencer, Elizabeth LaPouttre and Joanne Hills.

Aaron Reinbold called the meeting to order. Pastor Haller opened with a reading and devotion from Matthew 12 and closed the devotion with prayer.

Review of the June Parish Planning meeting minutes, Motion to accept the minutes by Holly Winter and 2nd by Diane Spencer. Motion carried and approved.

Treasurer's Report - Joanne Hills

- Copies of balances sheets thru the end of August were passed out to each board.
- 2027 budgets need to be submitted to Mary by Sunday, October 4.
- Stephen Bender will double check some things concerning the parsonage rental and Susan's house for tax purposes.

Church Properties - Steve Reinbold

- Daryl Winter and Pastor met with Thumb Electric and received quotes for new speakers.
- New Carillon would cost between $6,000-7,000, as old one cannot be fixed.
- Samples for upstairs flooring were obtained. Going with vinyl planking, as carpet no longer could be stretched.
- Playground work is coming along. Andrew Coones finished his portion and was paid. Jeff Brinkman is putting pea stone down and then mulch as top layer. Fencing will follow.
- Doors for sanctuary and hall were ordered and will be replaced soon.
- Next meeting October 12.

Elders - Aaron Reinbold

- Security training was held on September 21. Scenarios and how to handle IED and fire extinguisher. Looking into grants. Another training will be in October for fire and weather conditions.
- Sanctuary improvement-purchased new Pascal candle holder and Advent wreath from Quality Wood in Ubly. Quotes were obtained for covers for pews, chairs and kneelers. Purchased a Gospel book cover.
- Approved funds for the speaker for Holy Conversation, which will be November 8 & 9.
- Implemented a new sign-in sheet for attendance and communion.
- October Elders: Aaron Reinbold and Brian Steinley.
- Next meeting October 6.

Evangelism and Mercy - Holly Winter

- Clothing Drive went well supplying 40 families. All the school supplies were given away. Suggestions were made for supply bags already made up to make things easier.
- Helped with Family Church night doing crafts.
- Giving tree will be set up again this year for mittens and scarves.
- Planning on ideas for outreach.

Ladies Aid - Diane Spencer

- November, December and May meetings will be at 2pm the first Thursday of each month due to Home School Coop every other week.
- Amending the Ladies Aid constitution: According to Grace's constitution, all checking by societies must be run thru the church. Diane asked what the Ladies Aid should do, as we have our own checking. After further discussion, it was decided to allow the Ladies Aid to continue with their own checking until a further search into Church records as to why this was allowed.
- We will be serving the first Advent meal.
- If you are giving flowers for the alters, please let a Ladies Aid member who is on for the month if you will be putting them on the alter or a Ladies Aid member needs to. It will make things easier if a member knows. Thank you!

Stewardship - Joanne Hills

- Discussed 2027 budget, coffee money, special missions and quarterly missions.
- For October: Coffee money is going to Good Samaritan Fund, special Missions as Mission Sunday to Luther Classical College in Wyoming and quarterly missions to LCMS World Relief.

Home School Co-op - Pastor Haller

- There are 33 students attending the Home School Coop, 5 in nursery, from 11 families. We meet twice a month on Thursdays. Four topics are taught: theology, music, art by Jeff Bolzman and literature for preschool to middle school.

Fellowship - Aaron Reinbold

- Last and best of our summertime potlucks was September 13th, following the Divine Service. Aaron roasted pork shoulders and butts for pulled pork. Pastor Haller and Hannah supplied drinks and everyone else brought potluck specialties.
- Sundaes are for Sunday School! Ice cream sundaes were served on September 20th in recognition of 26/27 Sunday School Kickoff.
- Grace's annual Harvest Dinner will be held on Sunday, October 11, at 5 pm. We will be having an organizational meeting this Sunday, September 27, after Divine Service. Asking for volunteers from members who currently are not on the board with preparation and cleanup.
- Advent Dinner signup dates are December 2nd, 9th, and 16th. There will be a signup sheet on the bulletin board on Sunday, September 27th. Dates need to be filled no later than November 22nd.
